PROJECT: CARBOHYDRATE

1 July 1951 - 30 September 1952

1. Area of Operations and Headquarters: Germany, Karlsruhe (Berlin Operations Base)
2. References: MGKW- 7463 approving CARBOHYDRATE Project to 30 June 1951
3. Aims:
 - a) Personalities, organization, plans, and activities of the Berlin Police Praesidium (East) in the Soviet Sector of Berlin.
 - b) Provides us with the tables of organization of the East sector police. Gives concrete examples and endeavors to obtain complete evidences that the East sector police force is being used for illegal purposes by the Soviets. Complete reports on and analyses of the methods used during police operations. •
 - c) To further his career as an East sector police official in order to insure continuing coverage of above-mentioned objectives and targets.
4. Personnel: CARBOHYDRATE was born on 23 March 1915. He received a good education which he finished by attending the University of Berlin from 1936 to 1938 and obtained his law degree on 19 October 1938 before the Berlin Kammergericht. From early 1939 until he was drafted in December 1940, CARBOHYDRATE was employed as a law clerk by the Berlin Criminal Court. During the war Carbohydrate served with various field units, participating in the campaigns in Russia in 1942, Rumania in 1944, and Poland in 1944. He reached the rank of Sergeant (Unteroffizier). Captured at the end of the war by U.S. forces, he was released in late 1945 because he had a wife and four small children and was not a member of the Nazi Party (he was, however, active in the Hitler Jugend and a member of the National Socialist Lawyers' Association). Returning to Berlin, he found his family and his apartment in Berlin undamaged. In April 1946 Carbohydrate obtained employment as legal referent with the Neukoelln branch of the Berlin City Administration's legal division. Finding his salary inadequate, Carbohydrate looked for a more lucrative position, and in the late fall of 1946 obtained
